

> 12 strategies to change a country

The strategies outlined here are the result of an in-depth assessment of Spain's current situation, as well as the challenges faced by the country over the medium term.

We seek to encourage debate with the participation of civil society and the business world in order to deal with these issues one by one, getting the most out of each of the strategies proposed.

	PAGE
01 LET'S GET INNOVATING What does Spain need to be at the forefront of innovation?	9
02 REINVENTING INDUSTRIALIZATION Should the Spanish government focus on promoting certain sectors?	29
03 DEFENSE: WE CAN NO LONGER DO MORE WITH LESS Can Spain continue to meet its defense needs with current defense spending levels?	47
04 YES, INTERNATIONALIZE MORE How can the internationalization of Spanish companies, forced by the crisis, be continued?	63
05 MORE BROADBAND! MORE ICT! How can the intensive use of ICT be encouraged in Spanish society?	83
06 SMILE AND THE TOURISTS SMILE WITH YOU How can Spain maintain its position as market leader in tourism in the face of global competition?	99
07 CEASING TO BE AN ENERGY ISLAND Is Spain capable of ceasing to be an energy island, reducing its dependence on foreign energy?	115
08 LESS PROPERTY, MORE TRANSPORT Should Spain keep building infrastructure and housing?	127
09 FEWER BANKS, MORE COMPETITION? Does Spain need to move toward greater bank consolidation?	141
10 PRIORITIZING THE FIGHT AGAINST FRAUD How can Spain be more successful in the fight against tax evasion and tax fraud?	155
11 A BETTER EDUCATION SYSTEM IS POSSIBLE—EVEN IN THE SHORT TERM How can a stable legal framework and innovation in education be reconciled?	173
12 RENEWAL OF INSTITUTIONS AND THE STATE Should Spain embark on profound institutional reform?	193

www.peninsula-press.com

STELLA KLAUHS Managing Director & Publisher
 ANDRÉS ORTEGA Editor in Chief
 MAURO PERILLO Associate Director
 LUCAS BLASCO Editorial Director
 CAROLINA MATEO Project Director
 MARÍA MEROÑO Project Director
 DORA SKALICKI Project Coordinator
 KATE MAJOR Translator
 ASHLEY BREGMAN Proofreader

MARTA CONCEIÇÃO Creative Director
 HENRIQUE SOBRAL Designer Assistant
 RAQUEL CATALINA Illustrations
 ELIANA LÚCIO Project Assistant

© 2016 Peninsula Press, S.L. All rights reserved.
 The reproduction of excerpts from this book is authorized for nonprofit purposes where excerpts are accompanied by full reference to the source and copyright owner.